Lex Mundi Member Firms Work Together to Provide Immediate Onsite Antitrust Assistance for Energy Distribution Company in the Slovak Republic

Houthoff Buruma, Lex Mundi member firm for the Netherlands, was contacted by a large energy distribution company with operations in Europe, Asia and South America regarding a raid on one of their local business units. The competition authority in the Slovak Republic was conducting a raid on the local office to obtain documents and perform staff interviews.

The client needed immediate assistance from specialized antitrust lawyers. Houthoff Buruma contacted fellow member firm, Cechova & Partners, Lex Mundi member firm for Slovak Republic.

Cechova & Partners sprang into action, arriving at the client's business unit within the hour to assist local management, provide legal assistance with staff interviews and ensure due process. The firm secured copies of all documents that were reproduced by authorities. These actions aided in the follow-up and defense for the investigation that came after the raid.

The client was so pleased with the positive outcome -- no fines were imposed on the company -- that Cechova & Partners is still rendering antitrust legal services to the business unit.

The client was also impressed with the immediate service and expertise available through Lex Mundi's global network of member law firms.

Lex Mundi is the world's leading network of independent law firms with in-depth experience in 100+ countries. Through close collaboration, our member firms are able to offer their clients preferred access to more than 21,000 lawyers worldwide - a global resource of unmatched breadth and depth.
